DEATH WAS ON HIS HEELS.

Jesse P. Morris, of Skippers, Va., and a close call in the spring of 1906. He says: "An attack of pneumonia left me so weak and with such a fearful cough that my friends declared that consumption had me, and that death was on my heels. Then I was persuaded to try Dr. King's New Discovery. It helped me immediately, and after taking two bottles and a half I was a well man again. I found out that New Discovery is the best remedy for coughs and lung disease in all the world." Sold under guarantee at A. M. Hughes' drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

The last will and testament of the late Ellsworth Norris, of Huntington, over which there was some question raised by some of the heirs, has just been sustained by the Circuit Court of Cabell county.

Olive Hill, Ky., April 20.—Several women of questionable reputation in this neighborhood received a visit from a party of masked men last night, who administered severe whippings and ordered the women to leave town at once.

Winchester, Ky., April 20.—The last of the famous contempt of court cases was settled this morning, when B. Fult French paid into the court $4,486. The fine with damages and cost amounted to nearly $5,000, but the Governor a few days ago remitted the portion due the State.

Winchester, Ky., April 18.—Gov. Wilson has remitted the State's portion of the $5,000 fine imposed upon B. Fult French, of this city, for contempt of court in running off witnesses in the Marcum-Hargis damage suit. With damages and interest the fine amounted to about $6,000 and the portion remitted was about $1,000, the remainder going to the Commonwealth's Attorney, the County Attorney and Circuit Clerk.

Winchester, Ky., April 20.—A. Floyd Byrd, of this city, publicly announced this morning that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from the Tenth district. He was a contending candidate before the last December convention and has acquired national fame for his prosecution of the Hargis cases.

John Langley, the Republican incumbent, will probably be the Republican candidate. At the last Congressional election the district went 300 Republican, and at the State election the Republicans carried it by 600.

Jackson, Ky., April 16.—Mack Eversole, Sheriff of Perry county, passed through Jackson last night en route to the Frankfort penitentiary with Logan Sizemore. Sizemore was given a twenty-one year sentence for killing James Stacy over a card game on Troublesome creek, about a year ago. Stacy is a Breathitt county man and had just returned from the Philippines where he had served three years in the United States army.

Sheriff Eversole was accompanied by his wife and James Doff, who were assisting him in guarding the prisoner. They came to Jackson from Hazard on a log raft.

Hamilton, O., April 17.—James Gullette, of Frenchburg, Menifee county, Ky., wanted in that town on five charges of forgery, was captured today on the farm of Edward Bennett, near Somerville, this county. The arrest was attended by exciting incidents.

Deputy Sheriff James Lyon and Constable A. J. Conarroe, of this county, went to the Bennett home. Conarroe entered alone and found Gullette seated in a chair. When arrested the man drew a knife and put up a furious fight.

The officers drew their revolvers and finally knocked him down. Gullette raved like a madman and begged the officers to let him get his revolver, offering to fight it out with the two of them at ten paces.

He was taken to Middletown and this afternoon returned to Kentucky. The prisoner is but 22 years old.

Because his mother, Mrs. Mary Gose of Jackson, Ky., feared that her son, James M. Gose, would get into serious trouble owing to the fact that he was a witness in the Hargis cases, she persuaded him to enlist in the army, shortly after which time he was sentenced by a general court-martial to dishonorable discharge and seven years' imprisonment at hard labor in the Fort Leavenworth penitentiary. At the request of Mr. Langley, of the Tenth district, the President has pardoned Gose, and he will be released within a few days. Gose enlisted in the Field Artillery early in 1905. While on a few hours leave with a comrade he came across a drunken soldier and, in a spirit of fun took off his shoes and carried them to his quarters. The soldier complained to the commanding officer and Gose was tried for larceny. The court could not see the joke, and gave him seven years. The mother of the soldier recently called upon Representative Langley and enlisted his sympathy in the case. Mr. Langley explained the matter to the President, who has ordered his release.

Frankfort, Ky., April 15.—Gov. Willson pardoned Tandy Martin, of Knott county, who was given a ten-year sentence for the killing of John J. Ambury. State Senator Hillard H. Smith was greatly interested in the case and presented all the facts to the Governor in such a manner that the Governor was convinced it was proper to issue the pardon. The Governor's reasons for pardoning are as follows:

The case presents strong considerations for the interposition and indulgence of the Executive in that the killing for which the said Tandy Martin was convicted appears to have been done in defense of his home and family from an attack made on his home in the night time by a crowd of armed men.

This pardon is recommended by Justice J. P. Hobson, who wrote the opinion in the case, and his recommendation for a pardon was concurred in by Justices T. J. Nunn, Henry S. Baker, W. E. Settle and Chief Justice Edward C. O'Rear, of the Court of Appeals. The pardon was also recommended by Attorney General Hays and his assistant, Mr. Morris, who prosecuted the case in the Court of Appeals, and by hundreds of citizens.

The Ashland Independent says: George Tabor, of Olive Hill, U. S. Deputy Marshall, for this district, who recently, while intoxicated, started a rough house in the Hotel Ventura here, has been made to "walk the plank."

Press Jackson, of this city has been appointed in his stead, and has filed his bond and assumed his duties. This is in the way of a re-appointment for Mr. Jackson, as he has already served eight years as U. S. Marshall, and his official record is first class.

Mr. Jackson resigned the office two years ago on account of other business interests. He was succeeded by Tom Salyers, now a policeman in Catlettsburg, and the latter in turn by George Tabor, of Olive Hill. Tabor after going into office, "tore up Jack" in Ashland on two or three occasions, and each time was given a stiff fine in Police court. The last time—some four weeks ago—Judge Hampton not only fined him heavily, but made him give a stiff penance bond, in the meantime keeping him locked up in the city jail until relatives came to his aid.

Mr. Jackson will have his office headquarters in Catlettsburg.

Ben Salyer, age 74, died at the home of his son-in-law, R. H. Harris, in Catlettsburg.

Keen Burdett's residence on J. H. creek, Floyd creek, was destroyed by fire. Loss $1500.

H. K. Kirk, an N. and W. telegraph operator, and Miss America Pratt, were married over in Wayne county recently.

Judge Halsey, of Milwaukee, has sued the C. & O. railway for $50,000 damages for injuries to himself and $30,000 for the death of his wife. They were in a wreck near Mayaville last year.

The Committee on public buildings has favorably reported on an appropriation of $100,000 for a Government building at Catlettsburg, and $10,000 for a postoffice building in Ashland.

On the Tug river side of Pike county, a boy named Pratt, age 13, shot and killed a 15-year-old son of Mat Mounts, over a game of cards last Sunday. It is said that Mat Mounts runs a blind tiger and gambling den. The Pratt boy was arrested and taken to jail at Pikeville.

FOR HAY FEVER.

Peruna is Sometimes Used With Excellent Results.

A CASE IN POINT.

MISS MAYME E. SMITH, 44 E. 4th Mount St., Columbus, Ohio, writes: "I have used Peruna for catarrh and hay fever. The results being remarkable, I can highly recommend it to all who are suffering with the above diseases. I am happy to be able to say it has helped me wonderfully."

What is known as hay fever is in reality endemic catarrh, a catarrhal condition of the nose, throat, sometimes the bronchial tubes, induced by some local irritant.

The irritation is generally due to vegetable emanations of some sort. Hay has been suspected as being the cause of this malady, hence its name, hay fever. It has been attributed to rag weed and other vegetation also. It is a very capricious disease, coming and going. A medicine that will help one case may not help another. Such treatment has always been very uncertain and unsatisfactory.

Peruna helps some cases without a doubt, although it is not claimed to be an infallible remedy for such cases.

Bank Talks

By the Louisa National Bank, Louisa, Kentucky.

To Those Who Have No Bank Connections:

You cannot accomplish much in a business way without the services of a bank. And when it comes to the question of whether or not you should have some bank connections, there is only one answer. Any business will derive some benefit from a bank's service.

A bank is not a luxury for the rich man; that idea is fast disappearing; the people from all classes are beginning to recognize the importance of a bank connection.

The bank helps the small boy to save, the farmer is afforded great convenience by the checking account. Every individual is aided by one or more of the bank's departments, just as demands require.

The service that a bank gives to its customers places within their reach every advantage to carry on financial matters easily.

Many persons are timid about opening a bank account because they think their knowledge of banking is limited, or perhaps they consider their amount of money too small.

To any such persons, we wish to say that the opening of a bank account is very easy; we explain all the details and it is simple for you. We also encourage any who have small sums to open an account. We furnish a pass book and checks, and all necessary instruction. Even though you are not ready to open an account, call at the bank and talk it over with us.
